

Leon Markham-Lee

Personal Trainer

How can I help you improve your health?

I have a background of Martial arts training from 1993 – 2018, in that time achieved a Black Belt in Chinese style kickboxing. Later became a competitive Muay Thai boxer on the UK circuit as well as Muay Thai instructor.

After a career change, I have worked in fitness since 2016 and trained people from ages 6 upwards. I am also certified in 4 x Les Mills programmes.

I truly believe like everything if you take a simple and consistent approach to training you will get results. Through Personal Training I aim to teach my clients this approach to add longevity and value to their fitness and wellbeing lifestyle.

What my clients say:

Leon brings a great balance of being encouraging and making it enjoyable at the same time. He really brings out the best in me through our training"

James Kelsey

Fitness Manager & Personal Trainer

How can I help you improve your health?

From playing football, to building muscle, through to my current passion for distance running (whether training for a faster 5km or a marathon!), I want to share my passion for sport and fitness and help support others on their fitness journeys.

Having recently completed an MSc in Psychology, I am interested in and believe strongly in the positive impact of exercise for mental health and wellbeing, and in promoting self-esteem and self-confidence.

Whether you are a complete beginner or training towards a specific goal/event, I will work with you to build healthy habits and an enjoyable training programme that, with some hard work and consistency, will help you in progressing towards your fitness goals!

What my clients say:

James has an open and relaxed approach which put me at ease from the start. His communication is always clear and informative, and he was accommodating towards my likes and dislikes.

I have nearly 20 years of experience in training people and guiding them to achieve their health and fitness goals. I create uniquely tailored programs to maximise your potential. Every session you will gain new insights into your body and push past any obstacles on to achieving your health and fitness goals. I will also impart to you the knowledge and tools that will help you recover from injuries, build muscle, lose fat and add years to your life. Book a free consultation today to get started!

What my clients say:

"I've trained with Manny for many years and always found him to be very encouraging, positive and enthusiastic trainer. He is very knowledgeable and takes the time to know about you and your body, to optimise your training plan to suit your individual needs.

"Manny has been my personal instructor for several years. Hopefully he will be for many to years to come. He teaches Tai chi with a focus inclusive of form and structure, which is essential to practice and yet very rare. He combines all the aspects of the art form, like philosophy, awareness and flow. His sessions are truly holistic and a treasure."

How can I help you improve your health?

I have an intense passion for Sports and Fitness and enjoy motivating and guiding clients where I pride myself in producing the best results for each client to achieve their goals. I specialise in muscle building, toning, fat loss and the art of Boxing. I'm a believer that anyone can transform their bodies no matter what the situation is, it's just a matter of smart working and the correct mind set. I see exercise as a powerful tool that helps improve general wellbeing both physically and mentally. A fully professional and first-rate service is what I can deliver from the start.

What my clients say:

"I felt very comfortable and welcomed training with Mark, he is a strong character and good motivator. He enjoys communicating his knowledge about the body, sports and training in a very entertaining manner without being up tight or overly professional. From traditional fitness circuits to intense pad training or weight training there was always something new within the session and He had a good feel of how to handle me in all sorts of situations. I like to call him the friend that gives you the kick in the butt you have always wanted."

Sami Sanalla

Personal Trainer

How can I help you improve your health?

Consistency. To have you make a significant body change, we have to keep you consistent. My approach is to have you training as hard as possible while keeping you injury free. My emphasis on mobility and correct technique will enable you to reach your goals in the fastest and safest manner possible. Consistency is king.

16 years in the fitness industry with majority of that time spent in corporate fitness, consequently I have an appreciation for a corporate clients working demands and the client specific approach which is often required.

What my clients say:

“Worked with a few trainers in the past, feel very fortunate to now be working with Sami”

“Never really liked the gym, but now really look forward to it”

“Lost a lot of weight and find training with Sami really prevents me slipping back to my old ways”

Paul Tappin

Personal Trainer

How can I help you improve your health?

With 35+ years in the industry, I have a wide knowledge and experience. This ranges from being a British Olympic Committee Physiologist, to Royal society of Sports injury Therapists. So whether you are an elite or professional athlete, to preparing for child birth or just want to look and feel better, then I can help. I played rugby for Harlequins, Team karate nation champion, have trained many individuals in the film and music business, professional football, rugby, dance, military and royal family. I believe thorough biomechanical screening highlights chronic conditions and allows clear goal setting. This allows you to optimise your results and achieve lasting changes.

What my clients say:

Paul has taken me through two pregnancies and now I have just won the British club Tennis championships. His guidance over the last 10 years has been inspiring.

N. M. Credit Suisse/UBS

I have worked with Paul for 12 years and have broken the 2hr30min marathon barrier and won European Duathlon gold. His knowledge of injury prevention and advanced strength work has been invaluable. C.D. Credit Suisse.
