Directions

By road

Leave the M5 at junction 30 and follow signs for Exeter and signs for 'Hospitals'. Once in Barrack Road close to the Royal Devon and Exeter NHS Foundation Trust, follow signs to Nuffield Health Hospital. The hospital is 100 yards on the right-hand side after the traffic lights at Wonford Road/Barrack Road. Please note that there is very limited parking available on site at the hospital.

By rail

Exeter is served by two railway stations; Exeter St Davids and Exeter Central. The H1 and H2 buses connect the stations with the Exeter Nuffield Hospital, alternatively you may find taxis available at the station.

By bus

Take either the H1 or H2 bus, which connects Cowley Bridge in the North to the Broadfields area via the City Centre. Buses stop outside the hospital in Wonford Road.

There are additional bus routes that enter the city from various locations across the local area. Many of them call at the Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital, which is approximately a 3 minutes walk away from the Nuffield Health Exeter Hospital.
