Directions

By road

The hospital is located on the south-western perimeter of Shrewsbury town centre on the junction of Longden Road and Mousecroft Lane. It is approximately half a mile off the B4380 Roman Road. The easiest access to the hospital is from the A5 at the island where the A49 (south of Shrewsbury) joins the A5112. Once on the A5112, go over Hereford Road roundabout and you will see the Meole Brace Retail Park on the right. Go to the traffic lights at the Meole Brace island and take the B4380 Roman Road. At the Longden Road roundabout turn left. Go past the Priory School on the right and the Meole Brace School on the left and the hospital is situated on the right-hand side.

By rail

Shrewsbury is linked by a regular main line rail service. The hospital is a 15-minute taxi ride from the station.

By bus

The 546 bus service will take you close to the hospital.
