Directions

By road

From the M25

Leave at Junction 11 and follow signs for Woking. At the first roundabout turn left along the A320, go straight across at the next two roundabouts until you reach the large Six Crossroads roundabout. Take the fifth exit, Shores Road, signposted to Chobham and Knaphill (there is also a signpost to the hospital). The hospital is situated approximately  $\frac{3}{4}$  of a mile further along the road on the left-hand side.

From the M3

Leave at Junction 3 and follow the A322 and then the A319 towards Chobham. At Chobham, follow the A3046 towards Woking. On approaching Horsell Common take the left-hand fork in the road signposted A245 towards the M25, Chertsey and Staines. The hospital is situated almost immediately to your right.

By rail

The nearest mainline station is Woking, a 25-minute train journey from London Waterloo. The hospital is located in the Horsell area, which is a 20-25-minute walk, or a 10 minute taxi ride, from Woking station.
